

The Canadian Council of Snowmobile Organizations (CCSO) is a volunteer led, not-for-profit national organization which through strong leadership provides support to our members and provides the unified voice of organized snowmobiling at the national and international levels. The CCSO envisions that across Canada, organized snowmobile trail networks and riding areas provide a lasting legacy of responsible riding experiences that are highly valued, safe, enjoyable, sustainable and environmentally friendly. For more information: www.ccsso-ccom.ca

The Canadian Off-Highway Vehicle Distributors Council (COHV), originally founded in 1984, is a national, non-profit, trade association, which represents the responsible interests of the major OHV distributors, as well as the manufacturers, distributors and retail outlets of OHV-related products and services in Canada. COHV member companies account for approximately 90 percent of the new recreational off highway vehicles, all-terrain vehicles and off road motorcycles sold in Canada. The COHV is funded entirely by its members and Industry Partners and by the programs and services it offers. For more information: www.cohv.ca

The Canadian Camping and RV Council (CCRVC) is an Association comprised of Provincial Campground Owners Associations, Private Campgrounds, the Canadian Recreational Vehicle Association and the Recreational Vehicle Dealers Association of Canada. The Canadian RV and Camping Industry generated $1.9-billion in total taxes at the Provincial and Federal level while employing 66,000 full-time workers generating $4.2 billion in total salary and wages. For more information: www.ccrvc.ca

The Canadian Recreational Vehicle Association (CRVA) is a non-profit association which promotes the aspects pertaining to the quality and safety in the RVs built by our CRVA member companies and works closely with accredited agencies in order to develop the standards and codes that ensures compliance beneficial to the RV industry and, ultimately, to the interests of the consumer. For more information: www.crva.ca

Canadian Shooting Sports Association (CSSA) is the voice of sport shooters and firearm enthusiasts in Canada. We support and promote all manner of shooting sports from traditional target shooting competition to modern action shooting sports, hunting, archery and everything in between. We support and sponsor competitions and youth programs. We are also politically active at the provincial and federal levels in the fight to preserve Canada's firearm traditions and the right of responsible Canadians to have unrestricted lawful access to firearms. For more information: www.cssa-cila.org

The mission of the Canadian Ski Council is to grow active participation in skiing, snowboarding and cross-country skiing by introducing 1 million additional Canadians to snow sports over the next 5 years. The Council's main programs include Go Skiing/Go Snowboarding, Never Ever Days and the Grade 4&5 SnowPass. In addition to programs designed to grow snow sports, the Council conducts research, advocacy and communications efforts on behalf of all Canada's resorts. For more information: www.skicanada.org

The Canadian Sportfishing Industry Association (CSIA) and the Canadian National Sportfishing Foundation (CNSF) are non-profit organizations dedicated to the promotion and protection of recreational fishing in Canada through the following programs: Keep Canada Fishing, Catch Fishing, National Fishing Week and Bob Izumi's Kids, Cops and Canadian Tire Fishing Days. For more information: www.csia.ca

The Fur Institute of Canada, started in 1983, is Canada's expert on humane trap research and furbearer conservation and is the official trap-testing agency for the Government of Canada and all provincial/territorial governments and in accordance with The Agreement on International

Humane Trapping Standards within Canada. The FIC also provides accurate and credible information relating to the economic, social, cultural and environmental impacts surrounding the harvesting and farming of fur in Canada and represent the interests of Canadians actively involved in fur use and wildlife conservation. For more information: www.fur.ca

The International Snowmobile Manufacturers Association (ISMA) is an organization representing the four snowmobile manufacturers. We coordinate committees within the industry to handle concerns such as snowmobile safety, the promotion of the lifestyle activity of snowmobiling, keeping accurate statistics, reporting the growth of the industry and the positive economic impact of snowmobiling throughout the world. ISMA maintains strong partnerships with the Canadian Council of Snowmobile Organizations (CCSO/CCOM) and the American Council of Snowmobile Associations (ACSA). For more information: www.snowmobile.org

The Motorcyle & Moped Industry Council (MMIC), originally founded in 1971, is a national, non-profit, trade association which represents the responsible interests of the major motorcycle and scooter manufacturers, as well as the manufacturers, distributors and retail outlets of motorcycle and scooter-related products and services in Canada. The member companies of the MMIC account for approximately 95 percent of all the new on-road motorcycles and scooters sold in Canada. The MMIC is funded entirely by its members and Industry Partners and by the programs and services it offers. For more information: www.mmic.ca

National Marine Manufacturers Association (NMMA) Canada is the national association representing the recreational boating industry in Canada. NMMA member companies produce more than 80 percent of the boats, engines, trailers, accessories and gear used by North American boaters. Our association is committed to growing our industry through public policy dialogue with government, market research initiatives, product quality assurance and marketing communications and public awareness programs. We also represent the interests of the nearly 5000 businesses across the country involved in recreational boating including marina operators, boat dealers and the many service providers. For more information: www.nmma.ca

The Recreation Vehicle Dealers Association (RVDA) of Canada is a national federation of associations and businesses involved in the RV retail sector. The core objective of the RVDA of Canada is to bring together and represent the retail businesses involved in the recreation vehicle industry across Canada, thus providing the support and strength to protect and promote the interests and welfare of Canadian RV Dealers, and to maximize the potential of the industry for all involved. For more information: www.rvda.ca

Safari Club International Safari Club International – First For Hunters is the leader in protecting the freedom to hunt and in promoting wildlife conservation worldwide. SCI has approximately 200 Chapters in 106 countries worldwide with 16 in Canada. SCI's proactive leadership in a host of cooperative wildlife conservation, outdoor education and humanitarian programs, with the SCI Foundation and other conservation groups, research institutions and government agencies, empowers sportsmen to be contributing community members and participants in sound wildlife management and conservation. For more information: www.sci-canada.ca